L'OUVERTURE: A BIOGRAPHY AND AUTOBIOGRAPHY.

This interesting volume contains two distinct works—the life of Toussaint Louverture, written by an American, and the "Memoirs of the Life of General Toussaint L'Ouverture," written by himself in despatches to Napoleon Bonaparte, now first published in English. It is very well and tersely translated for the benefit of our countrymen. Price, 25 cents; or, $1 per annum. Published quarterly.

This volume has been prepared with my sanction, and is an extended history of the relations between the U. S. Department and the Author. Dr. H. Blair, Postmaster-General.

PRICE, 25 CENTS; or, $1 PER ANNUM. PUBLISHED QUARTERLY.

The author says, "I have not withdrawn from view the awkwardness and embarrassments which beset a country life in New-England, nor overestimated its possible attractions. I have sought at any rate to give a truthful picture, and to defend it for as far as I can. I have done so, however, that a man might read it as if the trees were shaking their leaves over his head, the earth melting into all its banks within hearing, and the flowers blossoming in his hands."

Also by the same author, in instant pocket editions, printed on tinted paper, and bound in cloth, $1 each.

LAWATINE ON TOSMANT.

"NAPOLÉON BONAPARTE ON TOSMANT."

"We take pleasure in recommending this work, which you have fine reason to believe will be of great service to those who have turned to you and the brave blacks that we sent to them."

Called by your talents and the force of circumstances to the highest post, you have destroyed civil war, put reigns on the rebellion carried on by Southern men, restored to major and autocratic power, $1.25.
